WHAT BECOMES OF EDITORS.

What becomes of the editors?
That's what we'd like to know;
They do a heap of good on earth,
And to heaven they ought to go.
But something seems to tell us.
They are a populiar set,
And in the groat hereafter.
Will be "left out in the wet."

We've been thinking the question over And it troubles us a heap; It comes to us in the daytime, And with dreams disturbs our sleep; And the more we can the question. The deeper it seems to get, And brings us to this conclusion: They'll be "left out in the wet."

Now, resear to yourself a moment:
Would it do to let them in?
Would'n they go to interviewing
And discussing every thing?
Would'nt they have two parties,
And a hobby, too, to pet?
That thing would never do up there
They'll be "left out in the wet."

It's very well to smile, air,
And say, "Your head ain't level,"
But did you ever know an editor.
That sid in keep a "devil?"
You don't suppose for a moment.
That he in there could get,
And be a yolling "copy!."

There's one more point we'll mentio We hope you won't get offended,

"Let us all vote for this, " cried Kearney; "the crawling, creeping screens valley miners are in a state bordering on insurrection. The motion was adopted.

After the meeting adjourned Kearney made another speech beginning by announcing his readiness to test a gang of men to Maine to oppose any troops which might be sent there. In the course of his tirade he advocated lynch law.

made another speech beginning by an mouncing his readiness to lead a gang of men to Maine to oppose any troops which might be sent there. In the course of his tirade he advocated lynch law, freely used his thread-bare adjectives, and denounced John Sherman as a thief, who would stead the coppers off a dead man's eyes, and then kick his corpse because they were not silver. "Fill my belly with potstom," said he, "and I am a man. Give me a dollar based on a potato or cabbage that will sustain life and not a bit of gold to slick in a woman's ears or a man's tcoth." At the close he dealt with the Chunese question and the provisions relating to it in the new constitution of California, "If the United States meddles with that constitution," he cried, "we will log, off California and form a solid west, and with a solid south, we will whip the devil out of New Eeg land."

Washington, 10 - Donis Koarney, in his sposech before the greenback labor delegates, yesterday, said they were here attend to business and to carry out their purp, see when they go home and not to lean up against a bar. He related an anx-ofte, of the advice to a men on sailling a ship, to put his Bible in his procket and work the pumps. They were all bound for the same port, the Whitz House, which they incoded to capture. In California and he had formed a perty to capture the capital, and they did it. He had admenished them not to be hought off when the voting time comes, adding that these adventurers would a tempt to buy them off by sending a nice your glady to them, if they could not reach them in any other way. To-day they found every man who had stelen a dollar in favor of a strong everyment, and such a government the capital, and street and such a government the capital, and such a government to buy them off by sending a nice your glady to them, in the great the first process of the feeting that the same party to capture the capital, and they did it. 9.20 the house adjourned until Monday at 10 o'clock.

The secate adjourned at 11 o'clock until Monday. A resolution was passed providing for a committee on state valuation. Mr. Locke objected to such appointment, when cities were not represented. There are said to be some 100 stand of arms concealed in the large storage toom connected with the state library, and a guard of some six to ten men armed with muskets, placed over them. Mayor Nash objects to these men remaining armed in such a manner, remaining armed in such a manner while the police force is on duty, and is in consultation with General Chamberlain in regard to their removal. A letter has been received by a fusionist from A. P. Gould, the substance of which is as

P. Gould, the substance of which is as follows:
Say to all that in my opinion the governor and council should be chosen before action is taken on filling any vacancy. I also think the opinion of the judge should be entirely disregarded. We must hold the state government at all events, if it can possibly be done fairly. Let not a republican be seated in either house if he can be excluded upon fair logal grounds.

The Flaunch-Mouthed Blackguard Yalking Greenbackism.

New York, 10—At the greenback convention in Washington, yesterday, Kearney said: 'The republican party is run by national bank directors, iron boofed acoundreds shod in hell, and the democratic party by their tooks. These thieves and vagalonds, like other highwaymen, meet by the midnight hamp and divide the species. You, the mudsills and mutter home to your own destruction. I believe in plain language, and if any of you don't like it your may do the next best hing. I believe in sending national banks and their directors to the lowest regions of hell, and if the American people had any course thou, to be held in Chicago on Jane 2th.
A delegate then moved to condemn the anional authorities for not enforcing the eight hour law.

"Let us all vole for this," cried Kearney; 'the crawling, ercepting servents.

To-day they found ever man who had stolen a dollar in favor of a strong government, and such a government the labor party would give them, a government of the people, the newed appliance.

At the night mass meeting Kearney repeated substantially the same speech, to getter with some characteristic remarks on the Chinese question. These utterances were much applauded.

The Hellogg-Spofferd Case.

Washington, 10.—The Senate committee took up the Kellogg-Spofferd case today. Spofferd was represented by Judge Merrick. Kellogg and his counsel were both present, with several witnesses, Some discussion of the manner of conducting the proceedings was brought and by a suggestion from Judge Merrick that only members of the committee examine and cross-examine witnesses. It was decided, however, that counsel and the parties interested might also interregate witnesses.

John A. Walsh, backer, of this city, testified in rebutial of the testimony of Barney Williams, before the sub-committee in New Orleans, that he had confidency in the committee appointed by the Board of Indian Commistee in New Orleans, that he had confidency in the committee appointed by the Board of Indian Commistee.
